

My hero is my mother

Why have I chosen my mother? It is really hard to explain. My mother is the best mother in the world!

My mum, my elder sister and I are like best friends. We know everything from each other and we laugh a lot all the time. When it is necessary we are always there for each other, and I could write many more examples...

I love her so much! She trusts me and tries to support me every time, she cares about my happiness or sorrows. She says, 'If you want to reach something valuable in your life you have to work hard for it.'

When mum is at work, I always call her after school. I like hearing her voice. We discuss what has happened to me during the day. If something special takes place, she understands me. Whenever I need, she gives me advice or tells me her opinion.

My mother has been bringing me and my sister up on her own for ages. She works hard and gives us everything that she can. Sometimes she comes home weary from work, but she always has time for me. By the time she gets home I do my homework and then, I repeat her the things I learned.

My mother is a very good housekeeper; she cooks and bakes a lot for us. I help her to do the washing up or whatever else I can. I am her little assistant.

In the evening, when I go to bed she blankets me – just like when I was a little girl –, tells me how much she loves me and wishes good night for me. I go to sleep peacefully with good feelings in my soul.

Every day I tell my mum how much I love her and how important she is for me. I can also feel that I am important for her and she loves me and my sister. I wish it would last forever! I do not know what I am going to do if I lose her, but I know deep in my heart that my mum will always be with me.

I wish everybody such a kind mother that I have. She is my icon, my hero. I would like to be as a devoted mother as she is.
